

W = Wife
H = Husband

Wiley P.'s mother was supposedly Hannah Gray, but I have found no proof of that. His mother died and his father married again in Coosa County, Alabama. The family lived there until the late 1890's when they moved to Sycamore in Talladega County. Cotton mills were just beginning, and they were seen as a great opportunity. The family probably moved there to work in the cotton mills.

<http://newsarch.rootsweb.ancestry.com/th/read/RAN-CLAY/1998-06/0898776312>

(Parents of Cora Lee Williams House)
Wiley Pleasant Williams – B: Calhoun County, Alabama, in 1872
Lela Burns Williams of Anniston

m. Wiley P. married Lela Burns in Sycamore, AL in 1899

H: Dewey Augustus (Tae) House - B: 12-06-1898 - D: 4-26-1978
Cora Lee Williams (Baba) House - B: 12-03-1903 - D: 2-25-1983

(buried Eastaboga Baptist Church, Anniston, AL)

m. 02/05/1921

B: 1-30-1928 – D: 11-24-2014

(buried Eastaboga Baptist Church, Anniston, AL)

B: 11-13-1931 – D: 3-12-1997

Children: Jewell Glenn, John B., Bernard A. and Daniel Perry

Jewell Glenn married Elizabeth Leona 'Lee' (D. 2009) 1962
John B. and Bernard A. died in infancy
Daniel Perry married Sarah Jane Wisener; July 12, 1964 / Divorced 1979
Children: William Adrian Butch and Michelle Lynn House

Bura (Buddy) L. Williams - B: 10-28-1905 - D: 2-25-1984

(Buried Anniston Memorial Gardens Anniston, AL)

Lois A. Williams Fowler - B: 8-28-1908 - D: 8-13-1990
H: James W. Fowler - B: 9-03-1902 - D: 1-18-1991

(Buried Anniston Memorial Gardens Anniston, AL)

Woody P. Williams -B: 9-19-1913 - D: 12-7-1997
W:

(Buried Anniston Memorial Gardens Anniston, AL)

Children:
Wynette Williams of Eastaboga
Wayne Williams of Vincent
Don Williams of Alexandria